Date	Age	Life Event
December 10, 1927	0	Harvey was born in the Bronx, New York to Ophelia and Albert Glatman, a Jewish couple
1930	3	Harvey was committing a crude form of sado-masochism (he tied a string around his penis and placed the loose end in a drawer and then leaned back against the string.)
1931	4	His favorite past time was typing a rope around his neck, looping the free end over a pipe or rafter and yanking the rope with one hand while masturbating with the other.
1932	5	Tonsils and adenoids removed. Mother describes him as a healthy and normal child with usual childhood sicknesses
1938	11	Parents came home to find his neck swollen and rope burned. They move to Denver, CO. His father caught him masturbating and he warned him that it caused acne. Convinced that he was “queer” because he masturbated
1939	12	Harvey entered junior high school. Children continued to make fun of him for his acne, buckteeth, and overdeveloped ears. Harvey feared girls; he turned red and felt inadequate when he was around them. Began breaking and entering of private residences. He would take something, anything from each residence. He took a .26 caliber handgun from one home. He would sometimes follow a woman home, force her into her bedroom, and gagged her with a cloth, while tying her arms with his rope. He also unbuttoned their shirts and skirts and fondled them. He became more comfortable with touching women. In March, Harvey graduated from Junior High. Transferred to Grove Junior High.

May 18,1945	17	Police caught him in the act of breaking into an apartment of Elma Hamum through a window. In his pockets, they found a length of rope and .25-caliber pistol. While under interrogation he confessed to a number of burglaries but left out the ones with forced sex.
May 21,1945	17	Charged with first degree robbery-parents posted bail
June 18, 1945	17	He abducted a well-built woman, Noreen Laurel, from her neighborhood and after binding her, he drover her out of town to Sunshine canyon. He touched her but no rape. November/ December 1945	17	Pleads guilty to first-degree robbery, spends his eighteenth birthday in prison. Diagnosed as having psychoneurosis-Compulsive or anxiety type with depression, no evidence of schizophrenia
August 1946	18	Harvey approached Thomas Staro and Doris Thorn. He ordered them into the dark under trees and took Staro's wallet. He tied Staro's legs together and molested Thorn by threatening to kill her with his cap gun, which looked real. Harvey then went to Albany. Late August, Glatman followed a nurse, Florence Hayded, who he attempted to sexually assault. Luckily, she got away. Then, he found Evelyn Berge and Beverly Goldsten. They also got away and reported the incident to the Albany Police Department. Within two days, he was in custody and Glatman confessed to the attack of Florence Hayden. Mom and Dad Glatman were shocked at the actions of Harvey.
October 1946	18	Convicted of assaulting Hayden. Accepted guilty plea reducing charge. He was sentenced to five to ten years at the Elmira Reformatory

He was sent to Sing Sing, a maximum-security prison to complete his prison term. At Sing Sing, Glatman was described as being "psycho-educated and if still anti-social should be segregated even if schizophrenia does not seem developed."
1948	21	Paroled from prison. He was noted as being a model prisoner with a high IQ, who "demonstrated ability and eagerness in his prison duties and responded positively to medical exams." Under parole conditions

		Glatman was to return to the care of his mother, get a full-time job, and be under court observation for four and a half more years. Harvey returned to Denver, CO. He lived with his parents until his father's death.

August-Called Judith Dull regarding a photo shoot. She agreed to do a photo shoot that afternoon. He told her to wear a tight skirt and sweater. They left her apartment and went to his "studio." They began shooting bondage photos. Glatman pulled out a .32 Browning automatic and began shooting photos of Dull in bondage with the gun. He then raped Judy and made her cuddle with him while he watched television (comedies). Later, he took her past Thousand Palms. He lassoed her neck, shoved her to her knees, pushed her down and took the other part of the rope around her ankles. He pulled her body up and she was dead.

He pulled out his .32 caliber and demanded her to undress. He raped her then demanded her to pose for pictures. He garroted her, killed her, and then took pictures of her dead body in positions.
July		Found the Diane Studio, a modeling agency. Lorraine Vigil, a first time model, agreed to pose for him at a studio. He claimed that Lorraine was getting on his nerves, so he tried to tie her up, but she fought. She finally kicked the door of his car open. She ran to the light and much to her relief, two police officers were found. They began questioning him about the other victims. They insisted that he was the one who killed the other girls. Harvey finally confessed that he had indeed killed them. He said that there was no way they would know unless they had found his toolbox...What toolbox? Harvey further explained the toolbox with the pictures of the dead bodies. He was arrested. He took the officers to the dead bodies and then taken to the San Diego County Courthouse.
