MOTHER OF SCHOOL GIRL

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Daughter's Health.

Plover, Iowa.—"From a small child my 13 year old daughter had female weakness. I spoke to three doctors about it and they did not help her any. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had been of great benefit to me, so I decided to have her give it a trial. She has taken five bottles of the Vegetable Compound according to directions on the bottle and she is cured of this trouble. She was all run down when she started taking the Compound and her periods did not come right. She was so poorly and weak that I often had to help her dress herself, but now she is regular and is growing strong and healthy."—Mrs. MARTIN HELVIG, Plover, Iowa.

Hundreds of such letters expressing gratitude for the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished are constantly being received, proving the reliability of this grand old remedy.

If you are ill do not drag along and continue to suffer day in and day out but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a woman's remedy for woman's ills.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

JAPANESE DIET PROROGUED; CABINET LIKELY TO RESIGN

Two Houses Unable to Agree on the Appropriations for the Navy and Deadlock Results.

Tokio, Japan, March 24.—The Japanese Diet was prorogued yesterday by the emperor of Japan owing to the inability of the House of Peers and the House of Representatives to agree on the appropriations for the navy. The lower house had reduced the naval estimates by a considerable sum, and the House of Peers afterward further diminished them, but this was not agreed to by the members of the House of Representatives, and a deadlock was brought about. In political circles it is generally believed that the cabinet will resign.

The difference between the two houses of Parliament arose over the amount to be devoted to naval constructions. The House of Representatives passed an appropriation for this purpose amounting to $62,000,000, but the Peers insisted on a reduction to $45,000,000. There was an excited discussion among the representatives on the naval scandals, and a vote of censure of the government was introduced. This was followed by a resolution calling for the impeachment of the cabinet. While the debate was in progress an imperial edict suspending the session for three days was read to the House. As Parliament adjourns on March 25 in the usual course this was equivalent to a prorogation. The situation thus brought about is serious, as the budget has not been passed.

DID NOT FLINCH EVEN TO DEATH

William Dorr Executed for Murder of George E. Marsh

WAVED HIS HAND TO WITNESSES

Sheriff Walker of Windsor Was One of Those Present

Boston, March 24.—William Dorr was executed in the electric chair at Charlestown prison early this morning for the murder of George E. Marsh, a retired Lynn soap manufacturer. Sheriff Walker of Windsor, Vt., was among the witnesses.

Dorr entered the chamber unflinchingly. He waved his hand to witnesses he knew and repeated, "O Lord, into Thy hands I commend my spirit," when the current was applied.

In a statement given out by his counsel, Charles N. Barney, Dorr was said to have expressed remorse on account of the death of Marsh and deep sympathy for his family.

Dorr, who came from Stockton, Cal., shot and killed Marsh on April 11, 1912. Marsh was trustee of a fund for Miss Orpha Marsh, Dorr's aunt, and the state alleged that Dorr committed the murder in the hope that the money would eventually fall to him.

GUNMEN APPEAL TO THE PUBLIC

Four Facing Death Declare Their Innocence and Accuse Vallon and Webber.

New York, March 24.—Convicted of the murder of Herman Rosenthal and sentenced to die in the electric chair in the week beginning April 13, the four gunmen in the Sing Sing deathhouse issued a statement "to the public" recently.

Alleging that they were left to die unjustly, while former Lieut. Charles Becker obtained a new trial, they had their counsel, Charles G. F. Wahle, give out their appeal for "justice" and "fair play," which they had already prepared when he visited them Sunday. They reiterated their innocence, and charge Harry Vallon and Bridgey Webber with the Rosenthal murder.

"Lefty" Louis Rosenberg, 22 years old, the youngest of the four, wrote the statement with pen and ink in a clear, firm hand, and it was signed by the others through the heavy bars of their cells as the guard held it for them and stood by to see that they made no "improper" use of a sharp-pointed instrument like a pen. They told their counsel that they delegated "Lefty Louie" to write the statement because he had once kept books for his father, who is a flour merchant, and writes a good hand. They had obtained copies of the records of their own trial and of the opinion of the court of appeals and referred to points in them in the statement.

"Dago Frank" Girofici added a statement of his own in pencil, controverting a particular point in the opinion of the court of appeals. The others who signed the document are Frank Muller, otherwise "Whitey Lewis," and "Gyp the Blood," whose name is Harry Horowitz.

BEHEAD GERMAN "BLUEBEARD."

Carl Hopf, Accused of Murdering Four, Pays Penalty at Frankfort.

Frankfort-on-the-Main, Germany, March 24.—For murdering his father, his first wife and his two children, Carl Hopf, a druggist of this city, who was nicknamed the "Bluebeard of Germany," was beheaded yesterday.

Hopf was found guilty in January of the murder of these four persons and the attempted murder of his second and third wives and several other persons.

The actual execution of Hopf was over in 12 seconds, but was a most terrifying scene. After he was led to the block the death warrant was read to the murderer. This was followed by a statement from the kaiser refusing to commute the death sentence.

As Hopf stood quietly listening to the reading of the kaiser's statement he was suddenly seized and thrown down with his head on the block. He cried out in terror, but immediately the axe of the executioner fell and Hopf's head was severed.

BURNED IN BACKDRAUGHT.

Firemen Trapped by Flames as They Carry Hose Upstairs.

New York, March 24.—Three firemen were burned by a treacherous backdraught during a fire which cleaned out part of the upper three floors of the six-story brick building on the south side of Burling slip and South street yesterday. The injured men were Capt. Robert Donoghy and Fireman Alfred Devaney and Michael Jessup of engine 4. The sudden rush of flame came upon them without warning as they were fighting the fire on the fifth floor and all were burned severely on the face and hands.

Patrolman Bracken of the Old slip police station sent in the alarm when he saw smoke coming from the fourth floor windows. Above the ground floor only the third is occupied and that by J. Garcia & Bros., tobacco dealers. The fire started on the fourth floor and rapidly ate its way through the roof before the firemen got the better of it. A heavy fire wall kept the flames from the adjoining premises.

Capt. Donoghy and his men were the first inside the building with their line of hose. They had succeded in besting the flames on the fourth floor and had fought their way another story when the backdraught caught them. Other firemen quickly assited them to the street, where they were treated by Dr. Krieger of the volunteer hospital.

The flames didn't get below the floor on which the fire started. The damage was about $500.

Pinklets Really Do Correct Constipation

There are few persons who do not suffer more or less from constipation and because of the discomfort it causes and the ill-health that results from this condition everyone should know how to properly correct it.

Harsh purgatives, formerly much used, act violently and leave the constipation worse than before. Pinklets correct this unnatural and dangerous condition by gently assisting the sluggish bowels and torpid liver to regain their normal activity. Their action is gentle, but effective and thorough, and they do not cause a single gripe. Unlike strong purgatives, Pinklets do not upset the stomach nor irritate and over-stimulate the bowels. Because they have none of these evil effects, they can be taken with entire safety until the constipation is corrected.

To simply regulate the bowels or to treat obstinate cases of constipation, Pinklets are the ideal laxative. They are safe for every member of the family to use. Any druggist can supply you at 25 cents per bottle. Write to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for a Pinklet book which tells all about the cause, symptoms and treatment of constipation and sick headache.

WILSON PRESSES TOLLS REPEAL

But He Denies He Tried to Limit Debate in Congress—Knows of No Improper Influence in Case.

Washington, D. C., March 24.—While President Wilson has no doubt of the passage of the administration bill to repeal the Panama tolls exemption, he is anxious that it be brought to a vote promptly. He has been advised that a vote will probably be taken as soon as the rivers and harbors bill has been disposed of. The president said yesterday that it looked to him as if there had been a filibuster on the rivers and harbors bill to delay the vote on the tolls question, but smilingly remarked that minorities always filibuster. He denied a charge made on the floor of the Senate that he had attempted to limit the tolls debate in the House. He said that while he had no part in suggesting a rule to limit debate, he hoped there would be one. In reply to questions as to whether he thought any improper influences were being brought to bear aganist the repeal, the president declared that he had not sought to find any and did not suspect them. He referred to the controversy as a difference of opinion among the Democrats and pointed out that a majority of the House Democrats really had never voted for the tolls exemption and that the act was passed by a coalition of Republicans with a minority of Democrats. The president believes a number of Republicans will support him in his position to repeal the tolls exemption.

President Wilson's allusions to a filibuster seemed to have a quick effect at the capital. The rivers and harbors bill after which the repeal bill will follow, was given right of way, despite the fact that the District of Columbia legislation was entitled to the time. Administration supporters predicted that the House would take up the repeal bill by Thursday and claimed the support of approximately two hundred Democrats and thirty-eight Republicans, which would make an easy majority.

Senator Thornton (Democratic) of Louisiana had read to the Senate resolutions purporting to have been adopted at a St. Patrick's day gathering in New Orleans, saying the signers viewed "with pity and contempt the other senators now misrepresenting Louisiana," after having congratulated Senator Ransdell for his stand against repeal. Senator Thornton supports the repeal.

Senator Thornton characterized the resolution as "scurrilous," saying he did not believe it had been adopted at any public meeting of Irish-American citizens. "I have evidence," he said, "that it was the work of two or three men inflamed by inherited hatred of England and possibly in a state of 'physical exaltation' at the time."

Senator O'Gorman said yesterday he did not expect to call a meeting of the canal committee to consider the Owen bill repealing the tolls exemption until late this week at the earliest.

Money Saved by Making Your Cough Syrup at Home

Takes But a Few Moments, and Stops a Hard Cough in a Hurry.

Cough medicines, as a rule, contain a large quantity of plain syrup. If you take one pint of granulated sugar, add ½ pint of warm water and stir about 2 minutes, you have as good syrup as money could buy.

If you will then put 2½ ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup, you will have as much cough syrup as you could buy ready made for $2.50. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. It keeps perfectly.

You will find it one of the best cough syrups you ever used—even in whooping cough. You can feel it take hold—usually conquers an ordinary cough in 24 hours. It is just laxative enough, has a good tonic effect, and the taste is pleasant.

It is a splendid remedy, too, for whooping cough, spasmodic croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a most vaulable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in guaiacol and other healing pine elements. No other preparation will work in this formula.

This plan for making cough remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup is now used in more homes than any other cough remedy. The plan has often been imitated but never successfully.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

MONEY GONE KILLED HIMSELF

Harry Thurston Peck Closed Career That Was Eventful

WAS FORMERLY COLUMBIA PROFESSOR

Was Sued for $50,000 in Alleged Breach of Promise Suit

Stamford, Conn., March 24.—Harry Thurston Peck, a former professor at Columbia university, committed suicide at a rooming house here yesterday by shooting in the head with a revolver.

Professor Peck had been in ill health for a considerable period. A year ago this spring, Professor Peck was in a hospital in Ithaca, N. Y., in dire straits from mental breakdown. During the past winter Professor Peck had lived at Sound Beach, Riverside, and had taken rooms in this city in Bell street. It was at the last-named placed that he killed himself. Persons in the house heard a pistol report, and they found the body, a revolver being tightly held in his hand.

Mr. Peck in November, 1888, who was appointed to the chair of Latin in Columbia college, made vacant by the death of Professor Short, and long associated with the name of Professor Anthon, was graduated from Columbia in 1881, became a fellow and tutor in Latin, gave voluntary instruction in Hebrew and Arabic, and in June, 1886, was made tutor in Latin and instructor in the Semitic languages. He was a member of the Oriental society and contributed largely to the American Journal of Philology and other publications. At the time of his appointment he was engaged in preparing a Ciceronian lexicon, in connection with an edition of the orations of Cicero. He has spent some time in Berlin, studying with Professor Vahlen in connection with this work, and in connection with an edition of the Tuscan disputations of Cicero, in the classical series edited by Professor Pease of Bowdoin colege. Professor Peck is best known to the general public through his literary work and his brilliant book reviews.

In later years Professor Peck became more prominent in the press on account of a suit for $50,000 damages for alleged breach of promise of marriage filed by Miss Esther Quinn of Cambridge, Mass. The first wife of Professor Peck obtained a divorce in Sioux Falls, S. D., in September, 1908. The grounds were desertion. On Aug. 26 of the following year he married Miss Elizabeth H. DuBois, a teacher of classics in the Morris high school. Miss Quinn in her complaint alleged that her friendship with him began in June, 1900, when she was employed by the Commercial Advertiser of New York City, and continued until she heard for the first time of his marriage to Miss DuBois. Many sensational passionate letters and poems were introduced at the trial, but the case was dismissed as insufficient. Soon after this Peck declared himself bankrupt with assets of $200.

Following the suit, and it is said as a result of it, came Professor Peck's dismissal from Columbia, after twenty-eight years of service, "for the best interests of the university." Dr. Peck dropped out of sight after his retirement from Columbia and did not come before the public eye until April of last year, when he became critically ill at Ithaca, N. Y., suffering with a nervous breakdown. His life was despaired of until his divorced wife, Mrs. Cornelia D. Peck, a Christian Scientist, came to the hospital and ministered to him. The second Mrs. Peck found no objection to the ministrations of the divorced wife, in fact both worked together for the professor's recovery.

As far back as 1910 Dr. Peck had a sharp controversy with Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia, over the authorship of certain Latin addresses. Peck charged that Dr. Butler purposed to deliver in Berlin as his own an address in Latin which Peck wrote. Dr. Butler subsequently admitted that this was true, and was quoted in dispatches from Berlin as saying that the preparation of such matter was part of the professor's duty and that there was "no secret about it."

ARMY HORSES DESTROYED.

Forty-One Being Schooled as Jumpers, Burned in Fire at Fort Riley.

Fort Riley, Kan., March 24.—Forty-one blooded horses belonging to the service school on the United States military reservation, were burned yesterday in a fire that destroyed the school stables. The mounts were being schooled as jumpers and some of them were to have entered the military contests to be held in Madison Square Garden.

Two higher priced horses, including the stallion, Vestibule, presented to the school by August Belmont, were rescued.

Weak Lungs Often Lead to Serious Illness

If you have weak lungs, you are generally subject to colds or throat trouble and easily susceptible to serious Lung Trouble. In many cases pneumonia or bronchial troubles leave the lungs in a much weakened condition. Eckman's Alterative is a medicine for the throat and lungs which has been found to be very beneficial, even when a change of climate and other treatments failed to bring relief. Read of this case:—

231 S. Atlantic Ave., Haddonfield, N. J.

"Gentlemen: In the fall of 1906 I contracted a very severe cold which settled on my lungs. At last I began to raise sputum, and my physician then told me I must go to California immediately. At this time I was advised to take Eckman's Alterative. I stayed at home and commenced taking it the last week in October. I began to improve, and the first week in January, 1908, I resumed my regular occupation, having gained 25 pounds, fully restored to health. It is now seven years since my recovery has been effected, and I cannot praise Eckman's Alterative too highly."

(Signed) W. M. TATEM.

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

D. D. D. In Hospitals; Standard Skin Cure

How many hospital patients, suffering the frightful itch, the raw scorching pain of skin disease, have been soothed to sleep by a soothing fluid washed in by the nurse's hands?

That fluid is the famous D. D. D. prescription for eczema.

THE SUPERVISING NURSE of one of our prominent Catholic institutions (name of nurse and institute on application), writes regarding a patient: "The disease had eaten her eyebrows away. Her nose and lips had become disfigured. Since the use of D. D. D. her eyebrows are growing, her nose and face have assumed their natural expression."

How many eczema sufferers are paying their doctors for regular treatment and are being treated with this same soothing, healing fluid?

DR. GEO. T. RICHARDSON frankly writes "D. D. D. is superior to anything I have ever found. Soft and soothing, yet a powerful agent."

To do the work, D. D. D. Prescription must be applied according to directions given in the pamphlet around every bottle. Follow these directions—and see!

And it certainly takes away the itch at once—the moment the liquid is applied. The skin is soothed—calmed—so thoroughly refreshed—delightfully cooled.

All druggists of standing have the famous specific as well as the efficient D. D. D. Skin Soap.

But we are so confident of the merits of this prescription that we will refund the purchase price of the first full size bottle if it fails to reach your case. You alone are to judge.
