New Orleans police arrested these members of Hell's Angels motorcycle club as they entered New Orleans Monday. One of the members said the cyclists were in the city to observe the Mardi Gras celebration.

Girl Testifies at Arizona Trial, Tells of Death Ride

TUCSON, ARIZ. (UPI) — A Texas teen-ager described Monday how she lured 15-year-old Alleen Rowe from her home and later heard murder trial defendant Charles Schmid say, "We killed her."

Prosecutor William Schafer questioned Mary Rae French, 19, of Belton, Tex. Monday morning.

2 Slay Charges

Schmid, 23 former high school gymnastics champion, is on trial on two murder charges in the deaths of Gretchen and Wendy Fritz, teen-age daughters of a Tucson surgeon.

Their skeketons were found in the desert Nov 10, about three months after they disappeared.

Schmid is scheduled to go on trial next month on a murder charge in Miss Rowe's death. She disappeared from home on the night of May 31, 1964. Miss Rowe's body has never been found.

Electric Guitar

Schafer alleges the Fritz sisters were strangled with a cord from an electric guitar because they might have had knowledge of what happened to Miss Rowe.

It has been established that Schmid plays a guitar, but a cord found near the graves of the Fritz sisters never was traced directly to the defendant.

Miss French, whose family moved from Tucson to Texas last summer, said she tapped on a window of Miss Rowe's home after her mother had left for work.

Wearing a shift with her hair in curlers, Miss Rowe accompanied Miss French to the car containing Schmid and John Saunders, 19, a neighbor of the Rowe girl.

She said they drove to the desert wash and all four left the car, but Schmid told Miss French to return. Miss French said Schmid accompanied her part way and they heard a scream. Then Schmid went back.

'We Killed Her'

She said about 30 minutes later, Saunders came to the top of the arroyo and said Schmid wanted to talk to her.

She quoted Schmid as saying, "We killed her." Then, she said, he kissed her and said, "I love you very much."

Miss French was stony-faced and talked softly. Schafer asked her to speak louder a few times. She never looked directly at Schmid, who chewed at the tip of a ballpoint pen. He crossed and uncrossed his legs and yawned once.

Miss French testified she found Miss Rowe lying on her back with her face and head bloodied. Schafer contends Miss Rowe was hit on the head with rocks.

Dixie Sheriff Runs Again

SELMA, ALA. (AP) — Sheriff James C. Clark, whose treatment of Negro demonstrators last year made him a symbol of segregationist resistance, is running for reelection.

And one of his opponents in the May 3 Democratic primary is Wilson Baker, the city public safety director who disagreed with Clark's policy of mass arrests, and said so repeatedly.

Ironically, the outcome could be decided by the ballots of newly registtred Negro voters.

Federal examiners have been in Selma since last August and thousands of Negroes have been added to the voting rolls. There are approximately 11,000 Negro voters in the county now, just a few hundred short of the total for white voters.

Deep Elbow Bends— Fit for Mardi Gras

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — Street cleaning crews used heavy earthmoving equipment Monday to clear the beer cans from Bourbon Street, which is about as good a way as any to say that Tuesday is Mardi Gras.

"Mardi Gras," in fact, is French for "Fat Tuesday," but it is invariably wetter than fat in New Orleans. Half a million persons are expected on the streets Tuesday for one big blast before the traditional sackcloth and ashes of Lent, beginning at midnight.

Two parades were on tap Monday night and eight more were scheduled Tuesday. Parades form a sort of framework for the celebration. The big parade Tuesday is that of Rex, Lord of Misrule.

Police were ordered to look sharply for anyone resembling a member of California's motorcycle-riding Hell's Angels. Four Angels, a free lance cameraman and a woman writer who once ran for the New Orleans City Council were arrested early Monday as they approached a bridge across the Mississippi into the city.

The Secret Service managed to provide privacy for Lynda Bird Johnson, the President's daughter, and her escort, cctor George Hamilton.

Open Record, Solon Urges

Chicago Tribune Service

CHICAGO — Rep. Donald Rumsfeld (R-Ill.) said Monday the Johnson Administration is depriving Americans "of the basic information on which to base an informed opinion."

He spoke to nearly 300 newspaper executives at a meeting of the Inland Daily Press Assn.

The Freedom of Information Bill pending in the House is "one of the most critical measures to be considered by the Congress in the past 20 years," Rumsfeld said.

The proposed law would require federal agencies to "make all records promptly available to any person" and to provide for court action to guarantee this right of access except for "specified categories of sensitive government information."

Ease Cassocks Rule

MANILA (AP) — Filipino Roman Catholic priests who traditionally wear cassocks for all occasions will now be allowed to wear the American-style clergyman's suit when not officiating at religious functions, the Catholic welfare organization has announced.
